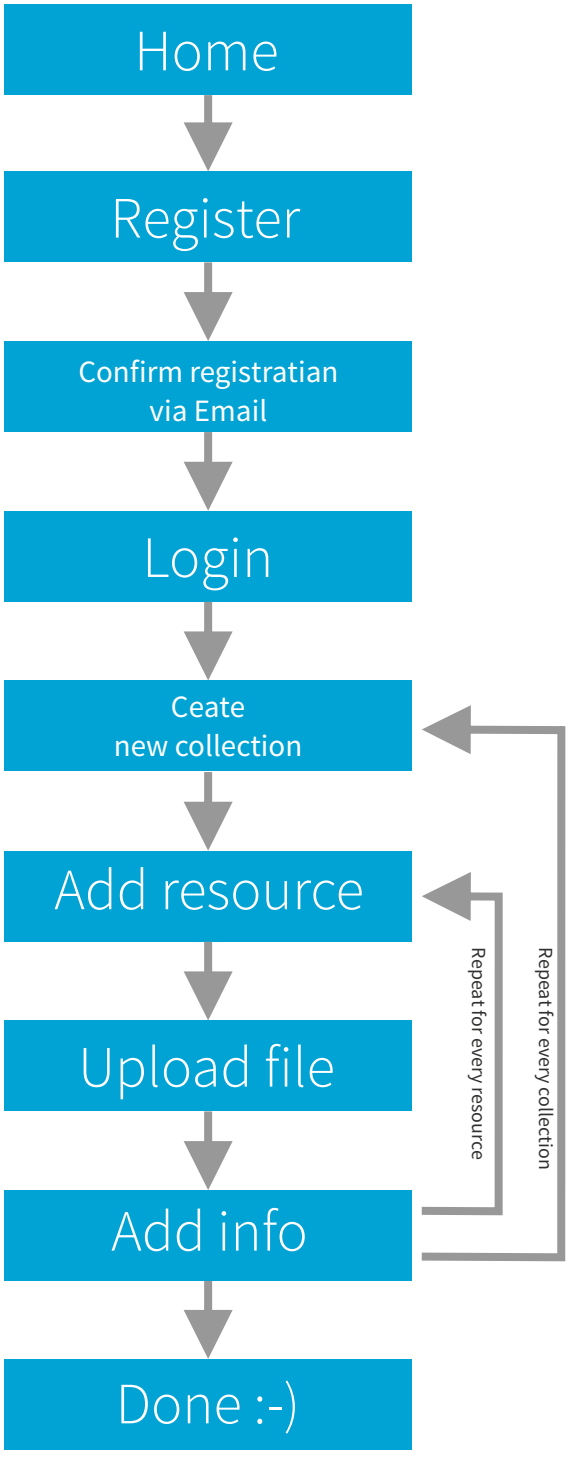
Expo Task Models

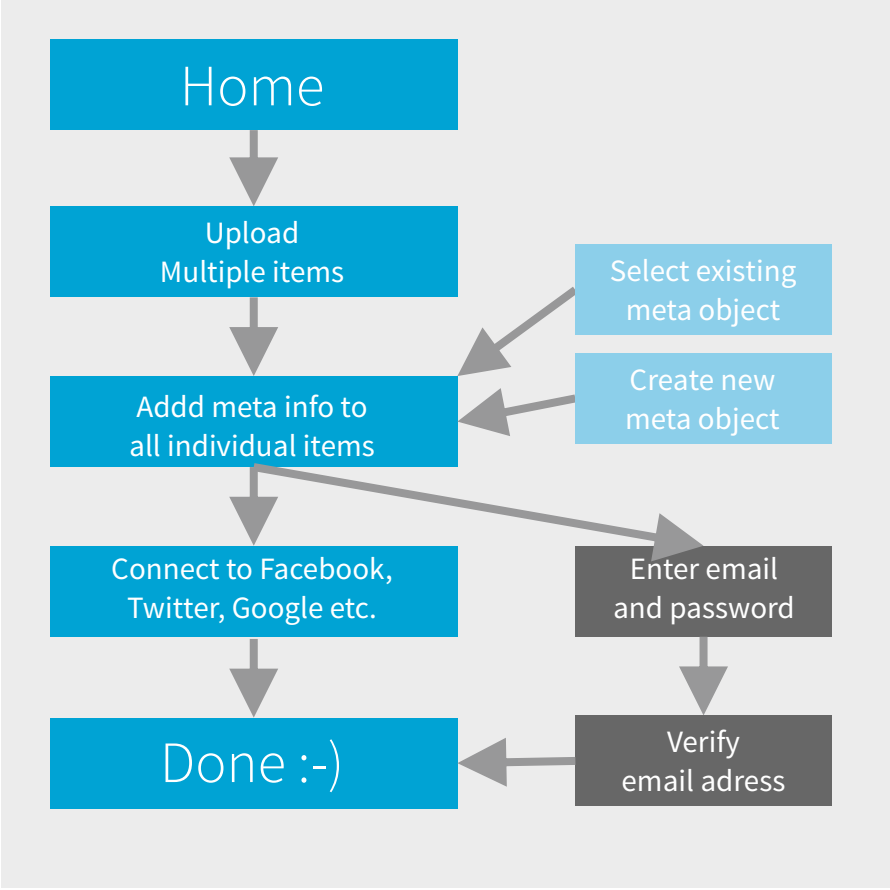
The taks models show the specific way a user has to follow to complete a certain task. The models are focusing on technological flows. Emotions are not involved. Both old and suggested new models are visualised so they are easy to compare.

Task: Add content

Old model

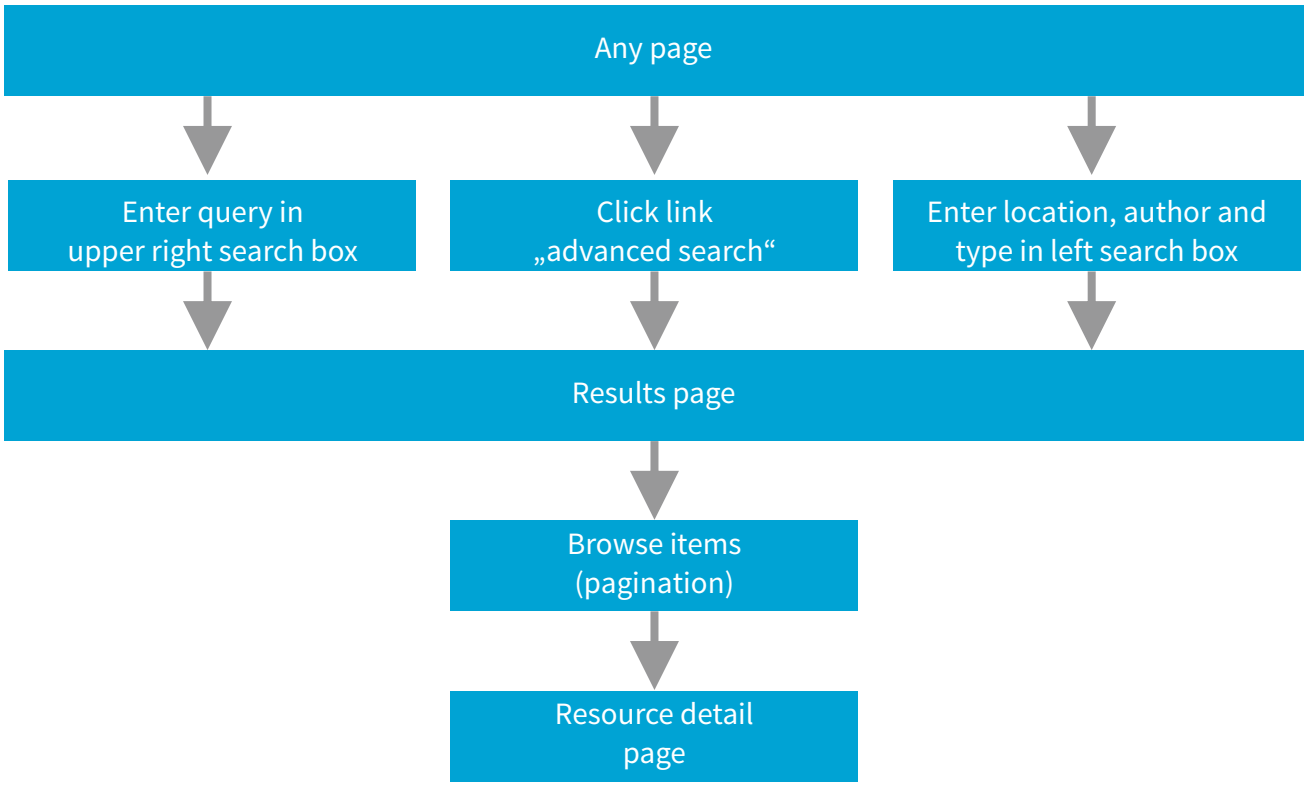


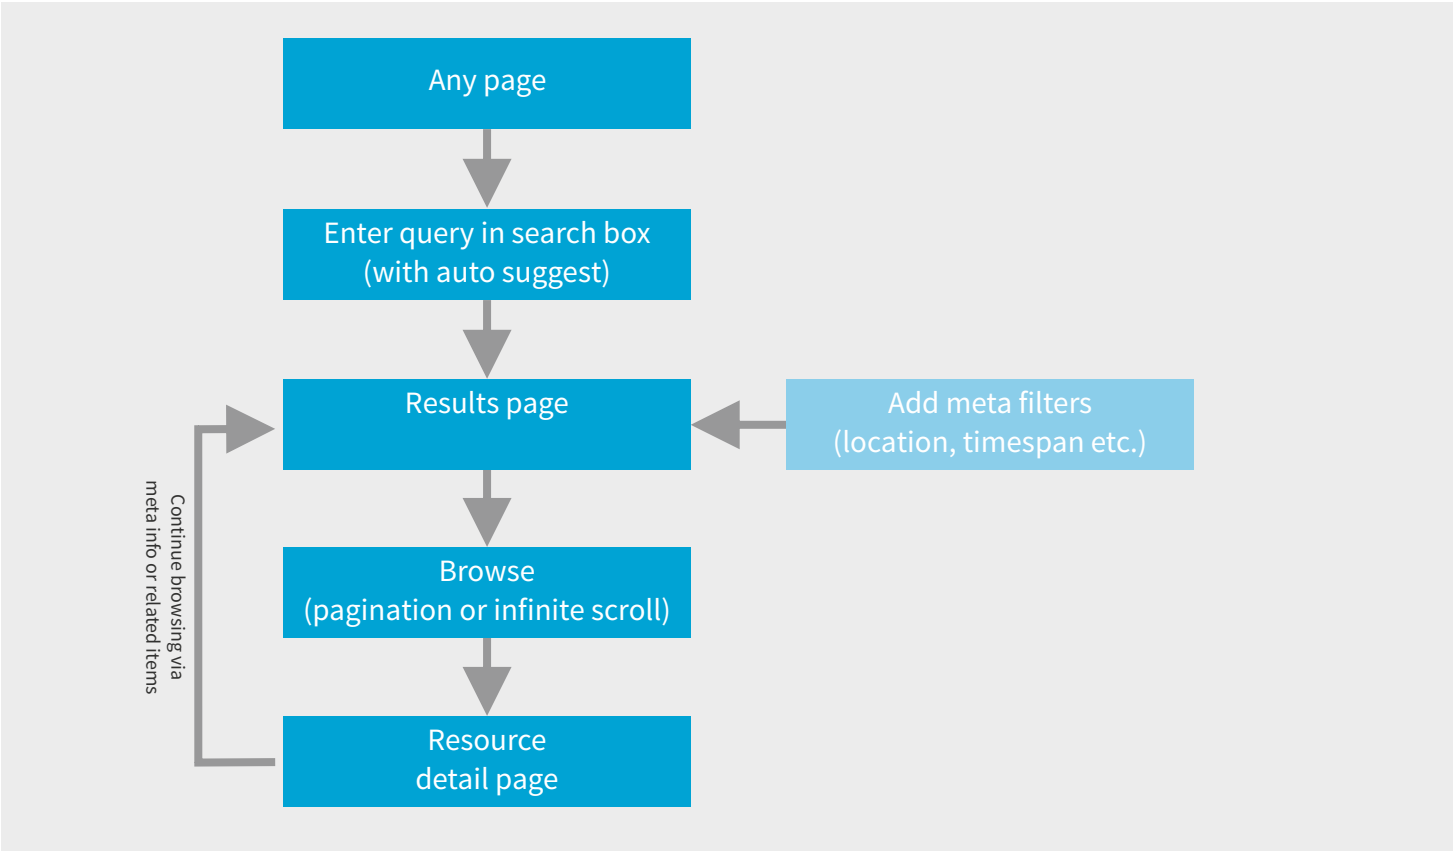
New model concept



Task: Search item

Old model





New model concept